

just a word to give you my opinion. leave nj alone. if you are so influence by businesses that is find with me. if other states residence don't mind being bother day and night by unwanted calls find. however, i do. i am happy with the ways things are. what ever happened to the republican idea of state rights!!!!!!! there is nothing in the constitution that i am aware of that allows people to bother me just because they WANT to. leave our laws alone..